GUIDED

"Marvellous way to spend the day"

Start your morning in Oxford exploring the beautiful countryside as we weave our way to the nearby town of Woodstock where we visit the home of Churchill's family & one of England's finest stately homes & gardens – world renowned Blenheim Palace.

Our friendly guides will take you on a scenic cycling tour to and from the Palace and ensure you get the most out of your visit to Blenheim Palace. We also arrange your tickets to the palace making sure you avoid the queues.

This circular tour provides a safe, fun and easy route to the nearby town of Woodstock, where the world famous Blenheim Palace is situated and the famous prime minister Winston Churchill was born.

This is a circular route that leaves the lively city of Oxford and heads through a large area of common land given to the freemen of the city by Alfred the Great, Port Meadow and which has the River Thames flowing through it.

The route joins the waterway path and you ride along the path where Lewis Carroll first began to spin the tale of Alice in Wonderland. After joining the Sustrans approved cycle paths you head onto a traffic free route towards the town of Woodstock, here the world-renowned Blenheim Palace is situated.

The return journey leaves Woodstock behind and joins the Oxford Canal path providing a relaxing route all the way back into the city.
